

PRESS RELEASE

Canadian Federation of Outfitter Associations

A unique Hunting adventure on “The Rock”

Quebec City, January 6, 2020 – The Canadian Federation of Outfitter Associations (CFOA) is proud to offer one unique adventure package at the 2020 Safari Club International Convention in Reno, Nevada (February 5-8, 2020).

This year's adventure consists of a 7 nights/6 days Newfoundland Eastern Canadian Moose Hunt for one hunter. The hunt will be provided by Big River Camps, an outfitter located on Newfoundland's southern coast, in September or October of 2020.

This package will be sold during the Thursday daytime auction (February 6), item #54, donation #41864.

By offering a variety of adventures, CFOA intends to promote Canada as a unique destination for hunters from all over the world, as much for the number of different species found here as by the variety of landscape in this country.

Online bidding will be possible through <https://auction.safariclub.org/auctionlist.aspx>. More details are provided on CFOA's website: www.canadianoutfitters.org.

Safari Club International (SCI) is the leader in protecting the freedom to hunt and in promoting wildlife conservation worldwide. Each year, at the SCI Convention, auctions allow hunters, anglers, art lovers or firearm collectors to find what their hearts desire. The 2019 SCI Convention will be held February 5-8 in Reno, Nevada. To learn more about SCI, visit www.showsci.org.

CFOA was founded in 2006 and is the voice for resource-based tourism throughout Canada on national issues. Its membership of ten provincial and territorial associations represents more than 2,000 businesses operating in all regions of the country. Canada's guide outfitting industry has an economic impact of over five billion dollars annually and provides over 35,000 jobs. More than 300,000 visitors from other countries use Canadian outfitters' services each year.
